

TruthTrackers

What's a TruthTracker?

A T&T clubber who stays "on track" in their Awana book. Most clubs runs for eight months, and each T&T book has eight Discoveries or Challenges, a child should complete one Discovery or Challenge each month to complete their book by the end of the year, see Book pace chart.

TruthTracker theme verse: Psalm 86:11 Teach me Thy way, O LORD; I will walk in Thy truth.

TruthTracker qualifications:

- At the end of each month must average 2 sections per week.
- Each Truth Tracker must have completed the Start Zone Entrance book.
- To remain a Truth Tracker stay on the schedule for finishing the book in the year.
- Clubbers who finish their book stay a Truth Tracker the rest of that year.

TruthTracker benefits:

- Can be scheduled to be a Flag bearer in the Opening Ceremony.
- Can be "Team Captain" head of the line walking to and from Game Time.
- Invited to member only Parties (Ice Cream, etc.)
- Allowed to participate in the Handbook Prize Game!

How do I honor a clubber who is a TruthTracker?

It's simple ... and fun! Each book room at CCC boys club has a TruthTracker chart (which doubles as a cool T&T-themed poster for your club room, Each name line has spaces for the eight colorful stickers. The Director announces them at Large Group time to all kids.

What if a child completes a Discovery/Challenge one month, but not the next?

He or she would be honored as a TruthTracker the first month, but not the second. However, he or she could again be honored upon "catching up" .

What if my super-achieving clubber finishes the book early?

That's fantastic they will qualify for all year TruthTracker stickers and may go on to the Silver and Gold extra credit Reviews at the end of each Discovery or Challenge.

In addition, TruthTracker pencils, bookmarks and buttons are also available on the Awana website at www.awana.org
